When asked for a comment on Stoker's dismissal, Pelosi's office sent KQED a copy of a June 28, 2018 letter addressed from the Speaker to Stoker. The letter read: "It was a pleasure to meet with you during your visit to the United States Capitol on June 27th. Many thanks for your commitment to the cleanup and transfer of the former Hunters Point Naval Shipyard. Your work to ensure public health, hold a transparent process that engages the public, and holding Tetra Tech accountable is critical and greatly appreciated."
